

AIT Worldwide Logistics Life Sciences

Trusted expertise for the most vital shipments

Whether we're moving temperature-sensitive vaccines and medications or life-saving medical devices, AIT understands every moment matters in life sciences logistics. That's why major biotech, pharmaceutical companies and other life sciences organization count on our fast, secure shipping.

Deep sector experience

- Temperature reporting and smart asset monitoring (humidity, falls, altitude, and more)
- Residential, B2B and B2C deliveries
- Re-icing
- Reverse logistics

Cutting-edge cold-chain resources

- Phase-change materials
- Active containers
- Cold-storage facilities worldwide
- Reusable cold-chain shipping containers
- Refrigerated "reefer" trucks
- Thermal blankets
- Passive packaging: gel packs, dry ice

Scalable, customizable global freight

- Ground, air, sea and rail freight services
- Expedited, consolidated shipments
- Priority and next-flight-out options
- Three-to-five-day deferred shipping
- Full and partial charters
- Exclusive-use vehicles
- 100% air ride vehicles
- Hot-shot trucking
- Full- and less-than-trailer load shipments
- Bonded warehousing

Full security credentials

- Transported Asset Protection Association certified
- International Air Transport Association certified
- U.S. Transportation Security Administration-certified cargo screening facilities
- Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism member

Added value you'll only find with AIT

- Chain of custody management
- Concierge-level, white glove delivery options
- In-house, licensed customs brokerage
- Strict, global quality assurance program, processes
- Fulfillment services
- Re-packaging, labeling services
- Hazmat certifications for all modes
- Online supply chain business intelligence portal
- Electronic data integration