

AIT Worldwide Logistics

Customs Clearance Wheels Up Process

Fast, hassle-free clearance from Asia and Europe—seven days a week

By minimizing on-the-ground delays, AIT's six-point Wheels Up clearance process can improve cargo transit times by as much as one full day for U.S. air imports. AIT's licensed customs brokerage transmits shipment data within two hours after takeoff for in-the-air U.S. customs clearance. Our brokerage also provides a wide variety of services to ensure the safety and security of your freight every step of the way.

Global expertise

- Customs bonds
- Customs classification assistance
- Duty drawback assistance
- Foreign Trade Zone locations
- Importer of Record standing
- Importer Security Filing credentials
- Inbound movements
- Purchase order management
- Risk management

Six-point clearance process

- Pre-alert direct to AIT brokerage control tower
- Clearance data entry prepped and queued for transmission prior to departure
- AMS verified and transmitted within two hours of departure, freight checked throughout, including departure day and weekends
- Customs, USDA and/or FDA (when applicable) clearance most often received prior to aircraft landing
- On arrival, cargo recovered and on its way to destination
- Transit times improved by as much as one full day